Be Direct

Keep my info short and to the point. Thor doesn't need all the details—just the key points about the wines.

Show Confidence

Speak with certainty and keep eye contact. Thor respects confidence, so let him know why you think a certain wine is the best choice with a strong, clear statement.

Be Ready for Questions

Have answers ready for any direct or tough questions he might ask about the wine. Thor wants to be sure he's making the right choice.

Respect His Time

Don't drag out the conversation. Be efficient and get to the point quickly.
